

Religious Simultaneous Interpreting Course

Being bilingual is not sufficient to provide religious interpreting as meaning is shaped not only by language but also by socio-cultural background and field-specific knowledge.

This course teaches strategies for interpreting in religious settings and includes practice-oriented sessions with individual feedback.

Graduates of this course will be prepared to interpret for various needs of your Order, Community or Movement:

- Chapters
- on-going formation
- other faith-related events

6 - 11 July 2020
Centro Ad Gentes
Nemi, Rome, Italy

www.religious-simcourse.com

Language pairs to be offered during July 2020 Course

- From English into French, Italian, Polish, Spanish
- From Italian into English, Polish
- From Spanish into English

Languages to be considered for future courses:

Asian - Chinese, Filipino, Indonesian, Korean, Vietnamese

European - Russian, Slovak, Ukrainian

Other languages may be added upon demand.

Goal of the course:

to prepare interpreters (oral translators) for working in the growing field of faith-related interpreting, especially in the Roman Catholic Church

Certificate in Religious Simultaneous Interpreting
will be issued
after the final exam
is passed successfully

Faculty includes professors of interpreting from academic institutions in Europe and in the USA as well as experienced trainers of interpreters in the Catholic context. All faculty have practical experience in religious interpreting.

For more information about the course and admissions process please visit religious-simcourse.com